CHRISTIAN FILM TO SHOOT ON RED ONE
Philip Hurn Will D.P. In His Steps

Lawrence Multimedia, Inc.'s upcoming feature length adaptation of the book In His Steps by Charles M. Sheldon will be shot on the Red One Digital Cinema camera. The Red One (www.red.com) is the next generation digital video camera capable of shooting at 2K and 4K resolutions, the equivalent of 16mm and 35mm film. "RED delivers unmatched image quality with no recording system limitations," states the official Red website. The first Red One cameras were released in August 2007.

"We are extremely grateful to the Lord for providing this opportunity to use such state-of-the-art technology," writer/director Zachary Lawrence said. "With Philip Hurn as D.P., we're confident that this film will be well-made and bring glory to God."

Philip Hurn, (www.PhilipHurn.com) a three-time Emmy Award winner who has served as Director of Photography on such films as Time Changer, The Moment After and Unidentified, has signed on as Director of Photography for In His Steps, and will be providing the use of his Red One camera for the shoot.

Lawrence Multimedia, Inc. is now accepting applications for cast and crew for this independent film production. Principal Photography will take place July 14 to August 15, 2008 in and around Montrose, CO. Those interested in applying can find all the details on the website.

More information on the film can be found at www.InHisStepsTheMovie.com
